

Lorainne Elizabeth Heath

January 29, 1943 - February 26, 2024

Lorainne E. Thompson Heath was born in New Orleans Louisiana on January 29, 1943 to Joyce and Curtis Thompson while he was serving in the Army. After his discharge the family moved to Birmingham Alabama for two years, after which they again moved to Jackson Mississippi. There, the family stayed until the summer before her senior year in high school. It was the family's move to Houston that brought them to the State of Texas.

Lorainne graduated from San Jacinto High School in 1961. And then went on to attend the University of Houston as a business major. She worked part time in the business office of oilman Glenn H. McCarthy's Cork Club where she was involved in many facets of the restaurant and entertainment industry. Lorainne met Edward while at the University. It took three years for them to decide to make a permanent arrangement. They married on July 15, 1964. After two years of marriage they moved to Los Angeles where they then transferred for their first tour in Mexico City. Their first child, Elizabeth was born in 1968. Then in 1970, their second child, Edward was born. The family then moved to Miami, to Panama, back to Mexico City, to Dallas, San Diego and back to Mexico City. Then returning to Dallas, on to Washington DC and then for their fourth and final tour of Mexico City. The children both graduated high school in the late 1980's and the family has since settled in the Texas Hill Country.

Lorainne enjoyed her garden, animals, reading, travel and the arts. She had a quick intelligent wit and a kind heart. Above all, she was a devoted wife and mother.

Lorainne is survived by her husband, Edward, her daughter Elizabeth and husband Gary, her son Edward and his wife Imelda and three beautiful grandchildren, Everett, Ellie, and Olivier.

Lorainne was a most honorable and humble woman.

“ Even in retirement, Mrs. Heath was always 'on her game' in business, classy dresser, and had a pretty smile. I had the pleasure of meeting her in 2016 and although she had had some health setbacks in the last few years, talking with her a few times, she still had spunk! Her smile will be missed by those who knew her. Praying for peace.
