Lorena Henrietta Brooks Crow of Boerne, Texas, died Wednesday, April 1, 2009 at 94 years of age. She was born June 3, 1914 in Moore, Texas. She was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Glenn Cagle Crow, and her daughter, Glenda Lorena Crow. At an early age Lorena moved with her family to San Antonio, where she was employed at Joske's department store. She worked in the hosiery department and also modeled shoes. It was there she met her future husband, Glenn. They married on Christmas day in 1941. When the United States entered WWII, Lorena and Glenn moved to Fayetteville, NC, where Glenn and his brother ran a laundry and dry cleaning plant at Fort Bragg. Their daughter Glenda was born on December 31, 1942. After the war they moved back to San Antonio. From the mid-1940s to the mid-1970s Lorena and Glenn owned and operated a successful business, Fashion Laundry and Dry Cleaning. During their marriage they shared a love for the outdoors, and had a summer home at Copano Bay near Rockport, Texas. In 1974 they retired to the beautiful Texas Hill Country, settling in Boerne. After Glenn's death in 2006, Lorena moved to the Ft. Worth area with her granddaughter, Melissa, where she lived until her death.
