“ I met Lori at Granados Community Center in 2011. She was a beaming , kind and loving person. Her friendly disposition was contagious and you couldn't help but love her back ! She and I became very close friends and shared similar life interests. Lori caught my bridal bouquet at my wedding in 2014, and the picture captured her most beautiful essence. We often talked about our love of the children and grandchildren and of course our love for our Saviour and Lord. Lori was always ready to help everybody . I will miss her dearly.

“ Our Heartfelt condolences to Lori's family and friends. Lori will be greatly missed by all of us at the Commander's House Adult and Senior Center. Lori's vibrant spirit and generosity will remain in our hearts for she dearly ministered to us with a hope that can only come from knowing Christ Jesus. Lori and family, thank you for sharing your life with us and for serving our Greater San Antonio Senior Community too. I will always treasure my talks with Lori as we washed dishes together and reminisced about our lives and loved ones. May the love of Christ and the memories of old bring you much comfort in this time. Siempre, -g-

“ My deepest condolences and love to my Texas family, most especially Troi and Tracie. Lorie was an inspiration and my heart sister for 45 years. I've never known a more giving person or a better servant of our Lord. She impacted my life in more ways than I can ever share in writing. Beautiful, smart, funny and joyful. We will celebrate her together in a few days and I know the burden of our grief will be lightened by each other.
