Lorenza L. Carrizales

September 11, 1924 – February 12, 2018

Our beloved mother, grandmother, aunt, and friend has gone to Heaven to be with the Lord. She passed away peacefully surrounded by family.

Lorenza was a devout Catholic and parishioner at St. Leo Catholic Church. She had a strong work ethic and devoted her life to her family. She expressed her love through acts of service and spending quality time with those she encountered. She was a source of strength for the family in times of crisis and leaned on her faith when challenged. Lorenza also loved to travel and visited many locations including San Francisco, Denver, St. Louis, Orlando, and Acapulco.

Lorenza was preceded in death by her children Gilberto (and wife Carmen), Abelito, and Abel. She is survived by her daughters: Elva Hernandez (Joe) and Diana McGlasson; grandchildren: Marivel Boos (Doug), Gilbert Carrizales (Sylvia), Consuelo Bracamonte, Ruby Estrada (Robert), and Joshua Hernandez; and numerous relatives, including 10 great-grandchildren and 4 great-great-grandchildren.
