“ I am Lori's granddaughter, Lola. She would always call me her princess, and I used to call her Momo, and my favorite memory was last Christmas at her and Popo's house. The entire family was there, including a lot of my cousins. We had fun, opened presents, and shared laughter. I will never forget this.

“ Two words are always used in the same sentence as Lori's name; loving kindness. She exhibited such loving kindness to all. And we were all blessed by her life. Her crown in heaven will be full of jewels. But our hearts will have a such a longing to see her face, hear her voice, her laughter and share time with her. Heartfelt sympathy to Pete and Matthew.
