

Lori Lynne (Pickens) Jenkins

May 22, 1960 - May 18, 2019

Lori Lynne (Pickens) Jenkins passed away on May 18, 2019. Lori was born on May 22, 1960 in Omaha, Nebraska. She was the oldest of three daughters born to Frank and Shirley Pickens.

Growing up in a military family Lori had the opportunity to travel and live in many places. After graduating from high school Lori joined the United States Air Force where she would go on to have a long military career before retiring. Lori had a warm inviting smile and a big heart. She enjoyed people and was friendly and welcoming to everyone she met. Lori also shared a love for animals and had a special affection for her cats. The greatest joy and passion in Lori's life was spending time with her two children, Ken and Kourtney, and her granddaughter Kalista.

Lori is survived by her son Ken Jenkins and wife Beth, daughter Kourtney Jenkins and granddaughter Kalista. She is also survived by her parents Frank and Shirley Pickens, sisters Terri Longoria and husband Andy, Valeri Olvera and husband Roy, and several nieces and nephews.
