

Lorraine Ruth Rogers

October 26, 1929 - November 4, 2013

Lorraine Ruth Rogers

After a long and very productive life, Lorraine Rogers passed away on November 4, 2013. Lorraine Ruth was born on October 26, 1929 to Madison and Gertrude Rogers. She was one of three children, having 2 older brothers, Stuart Harris Rogers and Madison Rogers Jr. Lorraine was born in San Antonio, but lived some of her childhood in Corpus Christi, Texas. Eventually she obtained her Bachelor's Degree in Elementary Education from Texas A & I in Kingsville, Texas. Lorraine was a true professional. She served children through the San Antonio Independent School District for many years as a teacher and a principal. Hillcrest, Wilson, and Will Rogers Elementary were her campuses. Lorraine was a member of numerous organizations: Delta Kappa Gamma, Beta Chapter, SA Area Retired Teachers, Shakespeare Club, and Salvation Army Women's Auxiliary, and Boys & Girls Club. Travel was also one of Lorraine's passions; she started as a young woman and traveled all over the world her entire life. Lorraine was a devoted Christian acting as a longtime member and Elder at Beacon Hill Presbyterian Church. She is survived by her brother Stuart, numerous nieces and nephews. She shared the love of many special friends, Jack Henson, Eileen Hertel, and the extended family of Patsy & Raymond Erben.
