

Louis Atencio, Jr.

February 7, 1977 - September 25, 2022

Louis Atencio Jr. age 45 of San Antonio passed peacefully into the arms of Jesus our Lord on Sunday, September 25, 2022 in the presence of his loving family.

Louis was a 1995 graduate of Antonian College Preparatory High School. He was an avid football fan and played football from the age of 7 years old. His favorite team was the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Louis was the most personable, outgoing, and kind person to be around. He carried an aura that would draw people to him. Once you became his friend he would never stop communicating with you. He loved life and all his family and friends. He was known for giving the best bear hugs when he greeted you. The type of hugs that made you feel comforted and loved. He was the awesome and silly father figure to his nieces and nephew, so playful and nurturing they loved being around him and talking on the phone with him for hours. They called him the cool dad. He lived life to the fullest and will be missed greatly. He was preceded in death by his father, Louis Benjamin Atencio. He is survived by his mother, Bobbie; brother, Christopher Atencio and his wife, Regina; nieces and nephew, Vivian, Scarlett and Jude; and numerous aunts, uncles, and cousins.
