“*Sad to read the obituary in the paper. Our deepest sympathy to the family in your loss. Frank and I were stationed at Chicksands, England with Louis. Also remember that our daughter, Chrisanne, adopted a yellow cat from the family. Remember the good times and positive events in your lives to fill the emptiness you are experiencing now. “*I extend my deepest sympathies to the family of Louis Broussard. My family and I had the pleasure of meeting Louis at the same residence where my Mother currently resides. Louis was a always a joy to be around. Always so kind and sweet to everyone around him. We are so honored and blessed to have known Louis and we will certainly miss seeing him everyday and always in that favorite chair of his. We are truly sorry for your loss...
