“ Honor Flight San Antonio was honored to have Mr. Carney travel with us, and the other World War II veterans, to Washington, D.C. on Flight #004 in May. He was a true patriot and warrior, and will be forever remembered by the Honor Flight San Antonio team. Rest in Peace, Warrior. With great respect, Court B. van Sickler, Chairman, Honor Flight San Antonio.

“ It was such an honor being Mr. Carney's social worker. I always looked forward to making my visits seeing his big smile and hearing him laugh. The Carney family was always so welcoming. You all showed the true definition of what family is suppose to be. You all have gained another guardian angel because he always expressed how important his family was to him. Sending my sincere condolences. Respectfully Erica Elizondo
