Louis was born October 10, 1927 in Victoria, Texas. He worked many jobs throughout his youth to help provide for his family, but he was most proud of his career at the San Antonio City Water Board, from where he retired after 38 years of employment. He also operated a small sewer and plumbing service business for many years. Louis was a true patriot and loved his country. He joined the Army, when he was 18 years old, and served in The Korean War. He was especially proud of service as a member of the 1st Cavalry Division, and always had intriguing and amazing stories to tell of his experiences in Korea and Germany. Louis loved to read, especially history books, and his daily newspaper. Louis will be remembered for his outstanding character, as he was a man of honesty and integrity, kind, generous and hard working. He was a patient and loving husband and father, and has left a legacy of love that will never be forgotten.
