

Louis C.. Rodriguez

October 11, 1928 - March 17, 2011

RODRIGUEZ

On October 11, 1928 an icon of humanity was born. He was Louis C. Rodriguez son of Jesus and Agapita Rodriguez. He was the youngest of their children. Born in San Antonio, Texas, raised in Carrizo Springs, raised his family in San Antonio, lived 14 years of retirement in Carrizo Springs, and returned to San Antonio for the last two years of his life. He was doted on so much by his parents and sisters. There was no forgetting his birthday as a child. He had his little chant "Fring Frong Frine Tomorrow is my Cumpline." He would chant that to the neighbors before his birthday and was always remembered as he grew older. What a full life you lived Dad. Your heart was so filled with people that it just couldn't go any further. Your ailing heart fluttered at the very end giving you time to see all the family surrounding you. You told us, "Don't be sad, be happy it is beautiful to have so many of you here with me." He took his last breath and passed peacefully on Thursday, March 17, 2011. It was as if God was taking you by the hand to everlasting happiness in heaven and saying, "Fring Frong Frine, today is your new Cumpline." Louis Rodriguez is leaving behind his wife of 60 years Juanita T. Rodriguez. His children continue his legacy; Leticia Rodriguez married to Robert Rodriguez, Jr., Ceasar Rodriguez married to Mary Carmen Rodriguez, Marysa Ramon married to Roland Ramon. He is leaving loving memories in his six grandchildren; Cassandra, Bobby, Cesar, Andrez, Roel, and Juliana.

Surviving is his only surviving sister Concha Munoz and numerous family members and friends. We love you; Husband, Dad, Friend, Mentor, Grandfather and Teacher,

“ I remember Tio Luis as a big funny man. When he came to visit my Grandmother and my Dad he always had interesting stories and made me laugh. His passing reminds me of how little time we have in this earth. My father and mother loved him so. May the Lord k

“ It's hard to understand why people are taken from us, but find comfort in knowing you were a special part of such a well-lived life.
May happy memories carry you through this sorrowful time.
