December 1, 1926 - October 19, 2010

Louisa "Lucy" Maria Batenburg, born December 1st 1926 in IJsselstein Holland, went to be with our Lord on October 19th, 2010 peacefully at her home here in San Antonio at the age of 83. She lived most of her life in Southern California with her husband Gerard Batenburg. Three years ago, Louisa moved from California to San Antonio to be closer to her daughter, Gerri Dauley and her husband Joel who are the owners of the Mission Open Air Market. Louisa could be found every Wednesday in the market cafe, with her dear friend Mary, visiting with her many friends. Louisa was a very active person who loved to dance, loved music and loved gardening and her favorite pass time was bingo. She was the bingo queen. One of the most important things she loved was this country. No matter where she was, if the national anthem began to play, Louisa would stand up and place her hand over her heart and sing away. Louisa is preceded in death by her husband Gerard Batenburg and brothers Wim & Joe Outhuyse of Southern California. Louisa is survived by her brother Al Outhuyse & wife Jean, niece Trudy, nephews John and their children, as well as numerous nephews and nieces and many family members and friends. A special thanks to Pearl, Mary, Claudia and Hilda for being there for Louisa. Viewing is Sunday 6:30PM-8:00PM. Mission South Funeral Home, 1700 SE. Military Dr. 210-924-4242. Services are Monday at 11:00AM with burial to follow at Mission Park. The remains of Gerard Batenburg her husband will be brought from California to be interred with Lucy, where they can be together forever. "You will be missed by all who loved
