“ I put this on FB now I'll share what i wrote for my grandmother here...

Today my Grandmother gained her wings to fly with the angels and be with her children and grandchildren including my baby sister, along with all her family that's been patiently waiting for her to join them, she lived to be 95!!! And got to see this world change, from the Ford Model T to what we drive today, lived through two world wars, President Coolidge to Trump, lived through the Great Depression and had 8 children and helped raise several grandchildren, and loved by many great great grand babies...

I'm sad that she has gone home now, but at the same time I am happy for my Grandma, she lived a unique and happy life with its ups and downs, but now my grandma is no longer in pain or sick, she is now surrounded by long lost loved ones looking down on us all....

Rest in peace Grandma and give my sister a big hug for me, I look forward to the day I can see you all again....
