

Lowell Bruce Dillashaw

November 16, 1956 - November 17, 2014

Lowell Bruce Dillashaw went to be with the Lord November 17, 2014. Bruce graduated from Holmes High School then received his Associates Degree from DeVry Institute of Dallas. He enjoyed racing cars at an early age and won several trophies. He spent about 14 years as a feature writer with the NHRA in Glendale, CA. He also spent time calibrating electrical scales in the oil fields but throughout his life racing always remained. In 2007 he moved back to Texas to be closer to his family. He was preceded in death by his father, Harold Lee Dillashaw, Jr. He is survived by his mother, LaVerne Dillashaw, brother, Harold Lee Dillashaw, III; nephews, Bradly Dillashaw, Lowell Jeffrey Dillashaw; his favorite aunt LaVell Parsons, who is his mother twin sister and numerous other relatives and a host of dear friends.