

Luciano Fernandez Alonzo

January 7, 1925 - January 25, 2016

Luciano F Alonzo, born January 7, 1925 in Lockhart, Tx. is now at peace with Our Lord and Savior. He is preceded in death by his parents Anacleto and Francisca Alonzo, daughter Esther Mendiola, his four brothers and three sisters. He is survived by daughter Mary Ann Martinez Ted and son Luciano C Alonzo Jennifer, his step children, numerous grandchildren and great grandchildren, as well as, nieces and nephews.

Luciano lived 91 amazing years until he was called to heaven peacefully on January 25, 2016. Within the time frame of his life he served his country proudly as First Scout during World War II and as a Civil Servant at Kelly Air Force Base as a Master Loader where he honorably worked for 34 years before retiring. He has been truly blessed and lived a wonderful life. He is a man that stood for integrity, who upheld his values and preached goodness throughout his life. He will forever be remembered for his laughter, his smile, his great dance steps and especially his charisma.

It has been written that a successful person's life is when family and friends surround your death bed. Luciano F. Alonzo had a room full of family and friends visiting throughout his time in hospice. Truly his life has been successful with his family surrounding his bed day and night is living proof that his life was lived to the fullest with success. His journey hasn't ended here...it has only just begun.
