

Lucille G. Leal

March 30, 1932 - June 10, 2023

A loving mother, grandmother, great grandmother, sister and friend, Lucille went to be with the Lord on June 10, 2023, at the age of 91. Lucille was born on March 30, 1932, to Mariano Gomez Sr. and Gregoria Gomez in Graytown, Texas.

Lucille left a legacy of joy, laughter, and love. She worked hard for her family after being widowed 40 years ago, retiring more than once, but not before gaining lifelong friends from Sears, Frost Bank, and SAS Shoes. She was often the life of the party, enjoyed dancing, going on adventures with her siblings, meeting new people, hosting family for the holidays, watching the San Antonio Spurs, Texas Rangers, Houston Astros, and Dallas Cowboys, and found great joy in seeing her grandchildren and great grandchildren grow up. Her steadfast faith in God and devotion to the Blessed Mother was an inspiration to all.

In heaven, a joyful reunion awaits with her beloved husband Alfred Leal Sr.; grandson Jeremy Christian Leal; parents Mariano and Gregoria Gomez; siblings Antonio Gomez, Leonor Avila, Josefina Casas, Henrietta Escobedo, Maria Benavides, Mariano Gomez, and Beatrice Martinez.

Lucille will be remembered and missed by many including her brother Adolfo Gomez; loving children Mary Jane Neal (Ronnie), Alfred "Sonny" Leal Jr.

(Angie) and Lorraine Balderas (Keno); grandchildren Kevin Forbes, Gary Leal, Lori Lee Hawk (Jason), Jarrett Neal, Kristen Carmona (Sam) and Zachary Balderas; great grandchildren Matthew Leal, Christian Carmona, Hannah Carmona and Noah Allen Hawk; numerous cousins, nieces and nephews; and her loving fur baby Daisy Mae.

Fort Sam only allows 3 arrangements at the gravesite.

“Joan and I would like to send our condolences to Lucy 's family. Especially to Maryjane, Sonny and Lorraine. She was a remarkable mother and grandmother to Jeremy. She was very special to him, which made her special to me. May she rest in peace.

Xavier and Joan, your thoughtfulness in remembrance of Mama is heartfelt. Her heart was broke when Jeremy left us. She is rejoicing with him and her husband now which gives me great comfort. Our Family Appreciates You! All my love, Mary Jane
