

Lucille Mae Wallace

August 15, 1930 - August 4, 2020

San Antonio, Texas - Lucille M. Wallace – 89. She passed away peacefully in her sleep at her home on August 4, 2020. She was born August 15, 1930, at Stanton, California. Daughter of Valentino Zuniga, and Carmen (Ruiz) Zuniga. She graduated from Strathmore High School in California (Class of 1950). Lucille married Herbert Wallace (Retired Air Force served 26 years) she was a devoted military spouse and a loving wife and mother along with her 4 sons who would also traveled and accompany him to many assignments to several locations around the world. Lucille accepted Jesus Christ and was Vocational Bible School Teacher for children and volunteered her weekends to the Medina Base Christian Church. She was employed 10 years at Winn's Department store and later at the Hobby Lobby for 15 years and she also dedicated her time to be Den Mother for the Cub Scouts and also was a member of the local community Doll Club and Sewing Clubs. Along with raising her four sons she made sure they were loved and taught them to be the best gentlemen they could be so they would be good sons, husbands, fathers and she was extremely proud of them. She gave so much love to all of her grandchildren great children as well and was very thoughtful of each and every one of them. She traveled to visit her siblings in California, and her hobbies were collecting Elvis Presley's memorabilia, salt and pepper shakers of all types, mouse and frog figurines also enjoyed Western Movies, loved listening to oldies music she did several arts and crafts projects. She loved to read her psalm verses and hear Christian music and sent out greeting cards to all who she knew for all occasions. Most of all she sewed for all the children's Halloween costumes and decorated for every occasion also when invited to any event she would bring a cover dish being a dessert or side dish. Lucille would always participate in family games she hit piñata's at the grandkids parties and walk the jetties at the beach and her favorite Basketball Team was the Los Angeles Lakers. Lucille would help family or friends whenever the need required.

In addition she is preceded by Parents, Valentino Zuniga, and Carmen (Ruiz) Zuniga, And Husband Herbert E. Wallace, Lucille is survived by her sons Herbert E. Wallace II, wife Judy of Tucson, Arizona and Roger L. Wallace and wife Mary of San Antonio, Tx. and Timothy L. Wallace and wife Margie of San Antonio, Tx., And Patrick W.
