

Lucy B. Lane

February 3, 1935 - December 2, 2021

Lucy B. Lane passed into eternal life on December 2, 2021. She was born the youngest of 3 children, February 3, 1935, in Omaha, Nebraska to Herman and Marie Blume. She received her Bachelor's Degree from Mundelein College in Chicago where she met her husband, Dr. James J. Lane, while he was attending Loyola University. They married on May 21, 1960, in Chicago, IL, and remained married until his death in July of 2010. They traveled extensively with the Army and settled in San Antonio. She gave of her time unselfishly and volunteered for many organizations and causes, including literacy programs for U.S. Army personnel, Catholic Daughters, and San Antonio Oasis among many others. She loved to travel and spend time with her family. She was an amazing cook and passed on traditions and recipes that her family will cherish forever. She will be dearly missed. She is preceded in death by her parents, her loving Husband James J. Lane, her sister Joan Bacynski and her brother Paul Blume. She is survived by her children; Christopher Lane, Michael Lane, Mary Eliassen, and Jonathan Lane as well as 9 grandchildren, 6 great grandchildren, and 2 great, great grandchildren.

A Memorial service will be held Friday, December 10, 2021, at 12 p.m. at Mission Park Funeral Chapels. In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations be made to San Antonio Oasis, 700 Babcock Rd, San Antonio, TX

78201

Previous Events

Memorial Service

DEC 10. 12:00 PM (CT)

Mission Park Funeral Chapels Cherry Ridge
3401 Cherry Ridge Dr
San Antonio, TX 78230
(210) 349-1414
<https://www.missionparks.com/>

Tribute Wall

MN

“ 1 file added to the tribute wall

Mission Park North - December 07, 2021 at 10:18 AM

AB

I had the pleasure of taking care of the beautiful Lucy Lane at Morningside manor. She was kind and sweet, and most of all she had a sense of humor like no other. She will surely be missed. Anna Brooks

Anna brooks - December 08, 2021 at 11:44 AM