Tribute Wall

“ Dearest Luis,

As your birthday draws near it's hard to even fathom that you're not physically here. You've visited me quite often in my dreams, life without you has been difficult. I say that because you and I shared so many years in each others lives even when we were younger. You truly were my soul mate and love of my life besides God and my children. I'm very happy that you came looking for me again and we got to share some beautiful memories together even on your last day here. You'll ALWAYS be in my heart, you God, my family and yours know how much you meant to me. I never left you side, even when you were ill. I love you and I miss you very much, Happy Birthday baby, until next time... Yvette M. Pansza, your baby doll.
