We will miss Lucha so much as she was a true friend for many, many years. She was a dear loving and thoughtful lady and so much fun to be around. Her laughter was so delightful and everyone that ever met her loved her too.

“ When I think of my mother-in-law I think of strength, tollerance, humor, great cooking, but most of all love. She was a saint with a heart of gold. I will miss her here, but will see her again.
