

Lydia Acosta

March 9, 1933 - November 4, 2024

Lydia Cantu Acosta went to be with the Lord on November 4th, 2024. She was born to Louisa and Jesus Cantu on March 9, 1933, in San Antonio, TX. She became a beloved wife, mother, aunt, grandmother, great grandmother, and great-great grandmother in her lifetime. Lydia was married to Vincent Scotti Acosta for 57 years. She is preceded by her husband, who passed away in 2022. She worked at Defense Mapping Agency for 30 years at Fort Sam Houston. After retirement, she and Vince volunteered at the Baptist Memorial Hospital in Downtown San Antonio, where they prayed for the sick for another 30 years. She, along with Vince, were also assistant pastors at The Gathering Church in Lytle, Texas.

Lydia is survived by her three sons; Ernest (Margie) Vidal, Roger (Mary) Vidal, and Phillip Vidal, her grandchildren; Nathan P. (Lacy) Vidal, David P. Vidal, Erin P. (Roger Derrick Flores) Vidal, Jessica (Andrew) Butts, Ernest Vidal Jr., and Monica Vidal, her great grandchildren; Rocky "Raul" Vidal, Cruz Vidal, Ada Vidal, Manu Vidal, David James Vidal, Aubree Isabel Vidal, Mia Desiree Flores, and Anaya Flores, Veronica Butts, Amber (Christopher) Cannon, Austin Butts, and Ryan Butts, her great-great grandchildren, Calliopy Cannon, and Laila Brown, as well as numerous other loved ones.

Lydia will be missed by so many who called her and Vince for prayer. While the news of her passing saddens many, please always remember to be absent from the body, means to be present with the Lord. Amen.

“ My first memory of Lydia was working at the Defense Mapping Agency at Fort Sam Houston. I was new to the office--Lydia greeted me with her awesome smile, and we were friends from that point on. One of my favorite memories: she invited the ladies in the unit to have lunch at her home one day. When we arrived, lunch had not been started; I could not see how we could have lunch within a reasonable time because it had yet to be made. LOL, 1, 2, 3 Lydia was stirring, and in no time at all, we had carne asada with fresh tortillas (she had made them that morning before going to work). Looked like magic to me, but she said Charlita, I have been doing this a long time. She was amazing and generous and always with a kind word. On my visits with her we usually sat in her den and chatted and watched Wheel of Fortune. These were peaceful moments in our visits. When my husband passed away in March 2021, she and Vince were among the first to call. Then sadly about a month later, it was my turn to call her. Lydia live a life of service and loved her boys and grandchildren and great grand children, who I know will miss her greatly. Sending love and hugs to them all. Rest well dear Lydia; you have earned it.

“ She was a mighty woman of God and a prayer warrior, she always had a kind word she always remembered not only my birthday but my entire family, she always blessed us with a birthday card and a Christmas card. I will miss our talks and your advice and encouragement on the way to church, and afterwards having lunch, and sharing fried mushrooms 😊. Thank you Sister Lydia for everything you did for my family and the TGC. We will miss you. Love you always 🙏❤️
