

Lydia U. Flores

December 17, 1937 - October 26, 2008

On October 26, 2008, our beloved mother, Lydia Uriegas Flores, age 70, was reunited in Heaven with her husband of 50 years, Edward O. Flores who passed away October 2, 2008. She was born December 17, 1937 in Losoya, Texas to Punuseno and Josefa Uriegas. She will live on in the hearts of her family and by the many people who knew and loved her. She is survived by her three sons, Robert Flores and wife Esmi, Johnny Flores and wife Norma, and David Flores; two daughters, Norma Flores, and Lucy Flores West and husband Toby; sisters, Virginia Sandoval, Rosa Rodriguez and husband Mario, Janie Cortez and husband Agapito, Toni Flores and husband Fred, Josie Clakley and husband Tommy; brother, Joe Uriegas; 10 grandchildren, 4 great-grandchildren, and numerous nieces and nephews.

Services

Visitation will be Thursday, October 30, 2008 from 4:00 pm to 9:00 pm at Mission Park Funeral Chapels South with a rosary to be recited at 7:00 pm. Procession will depart the funeral home at 9:30 am Friday, October 31, 2008 to St. Bonaventure Catholic Church where the Funeral Mass will be celebrated at 10:00 A.M. Interment will follow at First Memorial Cemetery. The family gives a special thank you to Vista Care Hospice for their kindness and care given to Mrs. Flores.

Tribute Wall

ME

“ My Dear Grandma, I still can't believe you are gone....well none of us can. I can still hear you asking for buttermilk or buttercup! I know you and grandpa are together again and watching over us. We will miss you during every holiday and birthday because melissa - November 16, 2008 at 12:00 AM

WS

“ Parents are a gift to us as we are a gift to them and then they are gone, but never forgotten by those that loved them so dearly. We all will lose our parents and we have to learn to accept it because we too will be gone in time from our children. Cousins

Willie U. Gonzale, Sr. - November 04, 2008 at 12:00 AM

MM

“ *To the Flores Family,
My most sincere sympathy to you all. I know that you loved your Parents. It is very difficult to lose a parent, but losing both is far more difficult. It is said that the Lord doesn't give you more than you can handle. Thes*

Maria A Mendez - October 31, 2008 at 12:00 AM

LG

“ *Dear Flores Family: I realize that no-one can help alleviate your pain right now. Losing one parent is hard enough but both in the space of a few days must be unbearable.
But the legacy that they left for all of you is immeasurable. Their example of lo*

Linda Graf-Wilcox - October 30, 2008 at 12:00 AM

EF

“ Tia Lydia you will be missed dearly but it is a comfort knowing you are with Tio Eddie now. God Bless your family my prayers are with them always.

Eunice Fosbenner - October 30, 2008 at 12:00 AM

WG

“ Words are hard to come by, when something happens that we don't want to accept. Two people we cared for are gone and we don't know of a good reason, why they are gone. They were together for so many years and now they are together once again. May our Aunt

WILLIE GONZALES - October 29, 2008 at 12:00 AM

DR

“ Dear Flores family,

I am very sorry, and I will miss my tia Lydia very much. My greatest memory of her is that she was always smiling, very hospitable, and always there when one needed her. I will never forget the times I would stay over at your hou

Debbie Rios - October 29, 2008 at 12:00 AM

MH

“ My dear Aunt Lydia... I am at a loss for words. You've always been like my second mom and I will miss you dearly. As always, Bobby, Nonnie, Johnny, Lucy and David, I love you guys and you will be in my prayers. Lucy... know that you are my heart and I

Mary Dee-Dee Herrera - October 29, 2008 at 12:00 AM

KS

“ I continue to hold your family in my prayers.

Karla Strickland - October 29, 2008 at 12:00 AM

LA

“ I am sorry for the loss of your mother. She was a very loving person and we were glad to know her. Our prayers are with you and your family during this time.

lisa lomas and stephen, rebecca Arocha - October 29, 2008 at 12:00 AM