“ A great loving mother and grandma- always had love ❤️ for everyone, even if she hadn't seen you in years. She would sparkle up with enthusiasm and smile and always welcoming arms no matter what. A grand cook, !!! Master seamstress, great advisor & spiritual, you would always find her praying or reading the Bible no matter what kind of a day she had. Very faithful woman of God, always trying to follow in the footsteps of Jesus, she would always say what would Jesus do way before that became a “saying “. Loved her daughters in law almost more than her sons hehe.. seriously though she loved everyone the same. She always said she was proud of all her family no one was below her love, all of us got the same true love ❤️ that only a mother can give. She was especially proud of all her grandchildren & great grandchildren. She will be missed greatly but she would be saying “ life continues “ always, she made us strong, love you mom forever and a day ❤️❤️💕🙏. I know you're in peace and reunited with all of the family up in heaven, one day we will be there also until then we will continue in your spirit and honor- love ❤️ always Eloy
