

Lydia Y. Rangel

April 18, 1927 - July 9, 2016

Lydia Yanes Rangel, born April 18, 1927 in Fentress, Texas to Eugenio and Simona Yanes, went to be with our Lord Saturday, July 9, 2016. She joins her beloved husband Jose, their baby daughter Maria Aurora, and her siblings Crespin, Crescencia, Juanita, Pilar, and Jesus. Family and friends were Lydia's passion and delight, and her devotion as a wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, sister, aunt, and friend will always be remembered.

Because she came from a large extended family who thoroughly enjoyed parties and dancing, Lydia always loved being a part of the fun, music and fellowship. Lydia leaves that legacy to her children and their families. Her big, friendly smile was her best feature, and Lydia used it to engage others as she served as a senior citizen volunteer for several years earning four commendations from the City of San Antonio. She was a parishioner of St. Leo's Catholic Church since 1952.

Lydia is survived by her sisters Teresa Rangel and Eusebia Ramirez; children Maria Rangel Reyes, Tomas Yanes Rangel Cecilia, Diana Rangel Vargas Robert, Velma Rangel Uriegas Frank, and Annie Rangel Ponce Andrew; grandchildren Barbara Reyes Owens Lee, Robert Reyes, Jr., Angelica Reyes, Tomas Jose Rangel Huong, Melissa Rangel Gutierrez Adrian, Sarah Rangel Ching Josiah, Robert Vargas, Jr., Monica Vargas Camacho Jesse, Natalie Elise Uriegas, and Andrew Steven Ponce.
