

Lydia Agnes Tudyk

January 5, 1929 - March 3, 2018

Lydia Agnes (Zigmond) Tudyk, 89 years old, passed away on March 3, 2018 in San Antonio, Texas. She was born and raised in St. Hedwig, Texas.

Lydia had a fun and energetic spirit. She was a member of the Rosary Society in the Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mother Mary Catholic Church in St. Hedwig, Texas. She worked countless hours with the Rosary Society. She also gave many hours to the church picnics and VFW picnics in St. Hedwig by working tirelessly in the kitchen. She was also involved and regularly helped out at the Senior Citizen Center in San Antonio. Lydia loved to garden, can vegetables, work with her flowers, and sew.

Lydia is preceded in death by her beloved husband of 43 years, Albin. She is survived by her children: Johnnie (Debbie) Tudyk, Ronald (Audrey) Tudyk, and Diane (Robert) Mahan. Eight grandchildren: Jason Pence, Mark Tudyk, Jennifer (Michael) Obearle, Eric (Rhobin) Tudyk, Stephanie (Chris) Gonzales, Aaron (Jessica) Tudyk, Melissa Mahan, and Stacie (Nicholas) Villarreal.

Thirteen great grandchildren and one great-great grandchild.

The family would like to send a special thank you to the staff at Sodalys at Stone Oak Memory Care and Stone Oak Care Center in San Antonio, Texas for the care and help during this trying time and for the dignity and grace they afforded Lydia.

Serving as pallbearers are grandsons: Jason Pence, Mark Tudyk, Eric Tudyk, Aaron Tudyk, Jonathon Obearle, and Nicholas Villarreal.

In lieu of flowers, please donate to the Alzheimer Association, San Antonio &
