

Mack Bridgeman

September 14, 1923 - November 11, 2005

Mack Bridgeman passed away November 11, 2005 at the age of 82. He served in U. S. Army during W.W. II helping liberate one of the concentration camps earning five bronze stars. He was a member of Stockyard Masonic Lodge #1244.

He was preceded in death by a son, Richard Bridgeman. He is survived by his wife of 35 years, Frankie Bridgeman; daughter, Jackie Clements and husband, Darrell; stepchildren, Nancy Jinks, Gail Boker and husband, John, Terri Garner and husband, Danny, Randy Young and wife, Julie, Sherron Thompson and husband, Tommy; daughter-in-law, Tansey Bridgeman; grandchildren, Erick, Dana, Charlie, Jennifer; and numerous step grandchildren and great grandchildren.

SERVICES

Funeral services will be held at 3:00 PM Monday, November 14, 2005 at Mission Park Funeral Chapels North with interment to follow at Mission Burial Park North.

Tribute Wall

DS

“ I want to extend my symphany for the loss of your husband. I am your neighbor accros the street at 6523 and have lived there for over 30 years. I have talked to Mackie on serval occasions and had enjoyed talking to him. I used to see him outside when the

Dorothy Stark - November 14, 2005 at 12:00 AM

RT

“ Please accept my sympathy and respect. May his memory comfort you through the years.

Bob Trujillo

Robert Trujillo - November 14, 2005 at 12:00 AM

VJ

“ My deepest sympathy to the family of Mack Bridgeman.
Love,
John and Vickie
Langbein

Vickie & John - November 11, 2005 at 12:00 AM