“ Uncle Malcolm was a great great man. He was my godmother Aunt Monica's husband. We always went to their house for family gatherings and I enjoyed it. He will be dearly missed. My deepest condolences to Nancy and the family.

“ I will sure miss Malcolm who was my stepfather. He was always extremely kind and helpful to me. He had a great sense of humor and was always ready with an amusing quip. Tears are running down my face as I attempt to type this. But I will see him again
