“ To my PoPo Manuel...My loving and beautiful grandpa I know you know how much I loved you! I see things everyday that remind me of you. I think of the chistes you would tell and I think of all the times we shared a look! I am forever grateful and blessed for the times you and I shared together. The light in my life has dimmed alittle and my heart is aching to call you, but I am happy you are no longer in pain. Until we meet in heaven I will cherish the memories of you and me and our family. Love you!!!

“ My dearest Daddy. I've come to realize how much I miss hearing your voice in the morning. After you would tell me Good morning you would say what are you making us for breakfast? I was so blessed to be able to see you & mom everyday...what a joy it was for me. I remember we would laugh often & also cried at times! You will always be my Hero. You loved & always supported me, but never did you judge me on mistakes I had done in life. Your famous words to me were always... its going to be okay! You would always thank me for being a good daughter, a great mom to Jenny & a good grandma to Lauren. I will never forget the day you told me that you were in so much pain & I needed to let you go. Tears ran down my face & I dropped to my knees & asked God to give you peace. May you always guide & protect my Daddy. Till I see you again. Love you always❤️ Diana

“ To the only man in my life that I will always love. I will never forget what an amazing husband, father & friend you were. At night I reach for your hand to hold & realize I am all alone. I know you are in a much better place, no more pain. Everyday people tell me it will get easier, but to me it's getting harder to realize your not coming back. Till we meet again in heaven, I will hold you deeply in my heart. I love you & miss you so much my "Dadito".

“ I will forever remember this humble and genuine man, a man who carried himself with quiet dignity and a noble heart. He took pride in his appearance, just as so many of our loved ones who went before him did, reflecting the honor and strength of our family. His memory will live within me always. I love you, my Tío Manuel. May you rest in the holy presence of our Heavenly Father, where peace has no end.
