

Manuel S. Gallardo

December 19, 1945 - June 20, 2025

Manuel Gallardo passed away peacefully after a long battle with various health issues. He was a fighter; he faced every challenge head-on and fought until the very end.

He enjoyed taking trips to Corpus Christi to go fishing and often shared stories from his childhood. He served briefly in the U.S. Navy and took pride in the success he found through owning and managing apartment complexes.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Frank Gallardo and Anita Salinas Gallardo, and his brother, Sylvester Gallardo. He is survived by his wife, Gloria Gallardo; his sister, Eloisa Espinosa; his brother, Frank Gallardo and wife, Linda Gallardo.

He is also remembered by numerous nieces and nephews.
