“ I knew Manuel from La Salle High School. He was two grades ahead of me. He lived close to me and my mom would sometimes pick him up and take us to School. He was a Friend of Henry Huizar who also attended La Salle and Married my cousin. Manuel was always Nice and Kind to me and He will be missed. Go in Peace .

“ My most sincere condolences to the Guerra family! I certainly will miss his cordial greetings each time we ran into each other at St. Leo's! It was at one of this acquaintance that we realized that we had a common acquaints, his uncle, who was the maintenance man at St. Henry's School, which I attended. I will miss you my friend, GOD willing we'll meet again!
