

Manuel Lozano Hernandez

January 9, 1939 - July 7, 2020

Manuel Lozano Hernandez, a loving husband and father, went home to the Lord on July 7, 2020.

Manuel is survived by his wife, Maria Lozano; his daughter, Gloria Muñoz; his siblings, Salvador, Socorro, Antonia, and Alberto; and his grandchildren Monica, Rene, Ernest and Mariana. He is welcomed in heaven by his parents Aristeo and Jovita; and siblings Jose Maria, Angelita, and Maria Trinidad.

Manuel was born on January 9, 1939 in the village of Palmillos near the city of Jalpa, Zacatecas, México. Throughout his life, Manuel traveled and worked in various locations in México and the United States. He married Maria and welcomed his only daughter Gloria.

Manuel was dedicated to his wife, daughter and grandchildren. Manuel was a gentle, kind, free-spirited individual who constantly enjoyed the company of family and friends. He loved baseball and listening to music. Manuel lived a very adventurous life while traveling for work opportunities as a migrant worker and always had unlimited stories to tell. His presence will be greatly missed by his family and friends.

Visitation will be held at Mission Park Funeral Chapels South, 1700 SE Military Drive, on Sunday July 12, 2020 from 4:00 pm to 8:00 pm. Due to current risks and recommendations regarding the COVID virus, attendance limitations will apply. Only 15 people will be allowed in attendance at a time. Live-stream of the services will also be available for both days.

A Funeral Mass will be held on Monday, July 13, 2020 at 11:00 am at Mission Burial Park South. Attendance limitations will apply. Immediately following the funeral, the graveside service will follow. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the family's GoFundMe account <https://gf.me/u/yfqbw3>.
