

Manuel S. Salazar

December 12, 1919 - November 21, 2012

Manuel S. Salazar, born in the mining town of Thurber, TX on December 12, 1919 to Gregorio and Juanita Salazar, passed away on November 21, 2012. He was a PFC in the U.S. Army during World War II. He was stationed at Yakota Base in Japan and assigned to Company "C" 43rd Engineering Construction Battalion to assist in building an airstrip. He worked for SAWS for 29 years before retiring. Manuel and his late wife, Blanche of 61 years lived in San Antonio until 1986 then moved to the Hill Country town of Bergheim, TX. Mr. Salazar was preceded in death by his parents Gregorio and Juanita Salazar; daughter Carol Ann Salazar; sisters, Maria, Pola and Eva . Survivors include 3 brothers, Anastacio, Victor and Robert; sister, Balvina; daughter, Elizabeth and Albert Martinez; grandkids include, Valerie David Spears, Veronica Andy Sanchez, Vivian Michael von Ness and Albert Sirena Martinez; great-grandkids include Samantha and Joshua Spears, Daniel, David and Devin Sanchez and Matthew Borrego. Step-son John and Donna Oman; grandkids, Debbie Mark Nisotis, Christi Mike Hayes, Kara Dave Amatore; great-grandkids include Rebecca, Alyssa and Emily Nisotis and Larrisa and Lindsay Hayes. Many thanks to VA, University Dialysis Southeast, and VITAS Hospice.