

Manuel Veliz

June 4, 1931 - September 8, 2010

VELIZ

Manuel Manolo Veliz was called up to the big leagues on September 8, 2010 by our Lord God. Manolo as he was called by all who knew him, was born and raised in Laredo, Texas on June 4, 1931 to Alvino and Leonor Veliz. He was an all-star athlete in both football and baseball. He was one of the "Eleven Iron Men" the only team Laredo has had that went to state. Later he attended the University of Texas in Austin where he played football for Darrell Royal. After college he joined the Air force serving in the Pacific Theater and Korea. He was also able to take part in the Air Force Baseball team, a game he would love for the rest of his life. He married his high school love Josephine Rodriguez on March 5, 1954, they were married for 56 years and raised three children, Angelica Veliz Cardaci, Richard Veliz, and Daniel Veliz. Manolo was active in his life being a member of both the VFW and the American Legion, he was also an avid Hunter. He was in sales for many years and never met anyone he didn't like and vice versa.

Survived by wife Josephine Veliz. Children Anjelica V Cardaci and husband Nicola, Richard Veliz and wife Carla, Daniel Veliz and wife Gail. Grandchildren Michael Rivera and wife Lisa Allen, Jason Andrade, Eric Veliz, Amber Veliz, Nathan Veliz, Adam Veliz, Ricardo Veliz and Rebekah Veliz. Great grandchildren Baylie, Brendan and Noah Allen and Jaime Andrade.
