

Manuela A. Martinez

August 2, 1927 - February 16, 2014

Manuela A. Martinez born August 2, 1927 in Woodard, Texas passed away February 16, 2014 at her home in San Antonio, Texas surrounded by her family. Manuela is preceded by her loving husband Ysidro Martinez, Sr., her parents: Miguel and Severiana Aguilar; sister, Janie Ortiz; brothers Miguel, Margarito, Luis and Amador Aguilar; children, Patricio, Jose Graciela, Angelita, Roland and Rogelio. Manuela is survived by sons: Ysidro Jr., Jose Luis Sr., Manuel Martinez; daughters: Diana Palacios Carlos, Viola A. Campos. 23 Grandchildren, 30 Great-Grandchildren, 2 Great-Great Grandchildren. Manuela worked at Three Sisters Department Store and as a nurse aide for many families throughout San Antonio. Grandma cared for all her grandchildren at one point in all their lives and eventually their children. Eventually her health and age switched to the role of her being cared for. Her last day was spent being showed that love and attention by her family. The family would like to thank Dr. Luz Moreno for excellent care, the staff of Fresnius Dialysis Center, New Century Hospice Care, and Terry Phew for her loving care and dedication given to Manuela. A very special thank you to her son, Ysidro Martinez Jr. for the endless of hours of care, dedication, and love given to his mom throughout his mother's illness. The family will forever be grateful to him for all his care and dedication.
