“ When I was 8 or 10 years old, Tia Melita invited my mom (Catarina) and her three boys born at the time (Pedro, Beto, Juan) to go on a short vacation to Corpus Christi beach, as well as to visit our Tia Viola Segrist Garcia and her family in Corpus.

In those days, the early 50's, it was a great adventure for all of us including Tia Melita because the roads were two lane and in poor condition but we made it to Corpus. We got to visit with La Tia Viola and our Corpus cousins which was terrific. We stayed at a small one story motel north of the old bridge in Corpus (north beach). It wasn't much of a place but the beach was outside the door. It was a great time. Thanks Tia Melita for this fond childhood memory. (Not sure about the date of this trip or how many of my brothers were actually born at this time.)
