

María Guadalupe Gomez Rodriguez

November 4, 1945 - December 8, 2018

María Guadalupe Gómez Rodríguez completed the cycle of life on Earth at the age of 73 and is now Home in eternal rest.

She was born to the late Luis Gómez Tena and Dolores Rodríguez Chávez. She is survived by her sister, María de los Angeles Gómez y Rodríguez and her brother, José Pineda.

She is survived by her daughter Martha P. Gómez-González, husband José González, grandchildren Patricia Alexandra and José María; daughter Paula Alejandra Fernández, partner Samuel Rosales, and grandchild Willie Ray; and numerous nieces, nephews and friends.

Guadalupe was born in Pátzcuaro, Michoacán, México. After she became ill her father prayed to the Virgen de Guadalupe and promised that if she granted the miracle of healing her, that she would be named in her honor. Being that her father was a Captain Major in the Calvary, they moved several times, finally settling in México City. A few years after the death of her father the family moved to Nuevo Laredo, Tamaulipas, México in the 1950's. In her late teens, to find a better opportunity, she immigrated to San Antonio, Texas, where she worked for the next 50+ years.

During those early years in San Antonio, her favorite things to do were to go to the movies at the Alameda Theater, dancing, and after Sunday Mass at San Fernando Cathedral, strolling down Houston Street.

On Thursdays (payday) she would take her “girls” to Mexican Manhattan for dinner. Her favorite hobbies were reading, watching her novelas, and shopping.

She leaves behind a lasting legacy of hard-work and dedication to her family. Lord, give her everlasting rest and eternal peace in the glory of Your light.

“ My memoires of tia Lupe will always be, celebrating on New year’s day. As we cheered away and made wonderful memories., ate our 12 grapes, wore red undies, placed our coins and lentils on the table!! Our trips to Fredericksburg to eat peaches, trying to find the best peaches! Aa my sister Mari said “tia Lupe will be missed on New years day. :(

You will forever live in our hearts ❤️🌹🕊️
