

Marcella Collins Anderson

August 14, 1940 - March 3, 2025

It is with heavy hearts that we share the passing of Marcella Collins Anderson, who left this world on March 3, 2025, in the peace of her home in Boerne, Texas. Born on August 14, 1940, in Guntersville, Alabama, to Gara Hallmark Collins and Elvin H. Collins, Marcella touched the lives of many throughout her journey.

Marcella dedicated herself wholeheartedly to her family after marrying and raising three beloved daughters, nurturing them with immense love and kindness. In 1966, she moved to San Antonio, where her tireless devotion to her girls created a foundation of love that would carry with them throughout their lives.

A true beacon of community spirit, Marcella joined Alanon in 1975 and committed herself to this program for an impressive 50 years. Her efforts helped establish a new group in the Boerne area, where she formed lasting friendships and continued to inspire those around her.

After relocating to Boerne in 2008, Marcella's faith blossomed as she became an active member of the Boerne Baptist Church. There, she found joy in the services and the cherished fellowship of her church community. In 2019, she met and married Roger Anderson, and their five years together were filled with love, support, and happiness. Marcella held a special place in her heart for Roger, who matched her affection with unwavering dedication.

Marcella's kindness extended beyond her family; she had a remarkable gift for making friends and cherished each connection she formed throughout her life. She was preceded in death by her beloved mother, Gara Hallmark Collins, father, Elven Collins, and brother, Sherril Collins.

Marcella leaves behind her husband, Roger Anderson; daughters: Sharon (Robert) Warren, Deborah Arnold, and Carol (Garey) Mesmer; grandchildren: Damon Warren, Adrian Warren, Melanie Warren, Alekzandria Arnold, Ian Arnold, James Raines, Kyle Raines & Kate Roy; and 11 great & great-great grandchildren. Her legacy of love and compassion will forever remain in the hearts of those who knew her.

Visitation will be held at the First Baptist Church in Boerne, TX, on March 14, 2025 from 5:00- 7:30 pm, and services will follow on March 15, 2025 at 11:00 am.
