“ “Aye”, grandpa. I remember you’d always tell me that when I saw you. Also, how we’d listen to Spanish music when I would go pick you up to come over to the house. We drink beer and I’d fill you in on how good the Spurs been lately. You were always a very relaxed and laid back man and always happy to see the family, as we were with you. I know you’re a great man who cared about your children and godchildren. You will be missed dearly. I love you.

“ I'm truly going to miss seeing my Tio on Sunday"s during football games. The cute smirkes he would give me whenever I asked if he had a girlfriend at the nursing home.
