

Maree V. Proctor

March 22, 1925 - May 15, 2021

On May 15, 2021 our angel on earth, Maree Violet Proctor became a heavenly angel at age 96 and joined her husband Roy Proctor, father Raymond Abraham Walls, mother Ima Lela Walls, and brothers Loyde Clarence Walls and Jimmy Ray Walls.

Maree and her husband Roy lived in New Orleans for 18 years, then retired and returned to San Antonio to take care of her mother Lela. They became active members of Colonial Hills Methodist Church. Maree was a friend to any anyone who wanted one, had a smile for everyone and never a cross word for anyone. She was the first born into a musical family, and music continued to be important throughout her life. She was always the strong gentle leader of her siblings and was always there when needed.

With her beloved dog Daisy, in 2010 she moved to Pflugerville, Texas, and lived in the house directly behind the home of her only child, Eldridge Hutcheson and his wife Ginger, whom she referred to as her daughter. She eventually agreed to move in with them.

grandchildren Cathleen Stettler, Vicky Stettler, David Aitken, and Eleanor Aitken.

University Village Assisted Living & Memory Care and Valerian Home Health and Hospice provided wonderful care and a safe environment to Maree for her last 6 years.

“ My Aunt Ree was like a movie star to me. Always dressed up in fancy clothes & the most colorful jewelry. Her hair was styled just so except for when she let it grow out into a cute little ponytail. She would sing songs to me & was a source of wisdom on so many occasions. She was the epitome of positivity, never complained & was constantly full of energy. She loved me, accepted me & made me feel confident in anything I attempted to do. I will miss her little giggle & the twinkle in her eyes but most of all, I'll miss that smile that showed others just how much she enjoyed life & wanted them to share in that joy! Until we meet again, keep smiling Aunt Ree!
