Fresh beautiful Sunflowers for our mom's new year death anniversary. We will never forget you mom. We miss you and love you dearly. We held a special mass for you at Our Lady of the Angels Church. We spoke to Danny and he is working to bring your friends at market square to celebrate you again. Cross your fingers and make it happen mom!

This is rare footage of mom singing Las mananitas to Lilliana her great granddaughter at 5 years old. Mom loved singing. We played it for her at her one year anniversary of mom's death. This is so special to us because her greatest gift was when she sang to us.

Mom caught this Corvina fish n May 31, 1997, 36 inches long and 17 1/2 lbs. She was so happy and proud of her big catch. She made the local paper because it was one the largest caught at the lake.

This is the youngest photo of mom dated September 28, 1951. She was a tender age of 16 years old - so beautiful. She hand wrote her first name in a pink marker on her photo. I had this photo embedded in a crystal block, it lies on led lighted base and serves as a night light for me. It is so soothing to have mom sleep with me.

“ I just want to let the family and friends of Grandma “A” that I too got to experience her passion and love for the Students of Stonewall/Flanders. I too remember her sweet whistling and singing as she paraded down the halls and working in the classrooms. I’m sure she was a wonderful Grandma and wife as well and that she will surely be missed! Praise be to God ! Sincerely, Mr. Luna (SWF-HISD RETIRED)
