

Margaret Elizabeth Gall

October 1, 1920 - March 26, 2009

Margaret Elizabeth Harris Gall passed away on Thursday, March 26, 2009, in Webster, Texas, at the age of 88. She was born in Cochranville, Pennsylvania, on October 1, 1920, to Howard L. Harris and Addie P. Grubb Harris. She was a loving and devoted wife, mother, daughter, sister, aunt, and grandmother, as well as a caring and giving friend.

She married John Walter Gall on April 17, 1946, in Bel Air, Maryland, and they were happily married for 52 years, until his death in 1998. As an Army wife, they made their home in Germany, Pennsylvania, and Virginia before moving to San Antonio in 1955. Margaret was a resident of San Antonio for more than 53 years before moving four months ago to Friendswood. Margaret was both a homemaker and Civil Service employee for 15 years before retiring to enjoy gardening, genealogy, crocheting, and spending time with her family.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her loving husband, and her son, James, in 1999. She greatly missed her dogs, Kissy and Bella.

Margaret leaves to cherish her memory daughter Patricia Michael and husband Kenneth of Friendswood, Texas, grandson Michael Gall of Atco, New Jersey, and granddaughter Kristina Michael of College Station, Texas. She is also survived by her sister and brother-in-law, Ruth and Brayton Hershey of Christiana, Pennsylvania, and her brother, Charles Harris of Cochranville,

Pennsylvania, along with numerous nieces and nephews.

Her funeral service was held on Wednesday, April 1, 2009, at 11 a.m.

Interment followed at Fort Sam Houston National Cemetery. "Meme/Mom, we love you with all our hearts."
