

Margaret V. L'Hommedieu

January 31, 1935 - December 24, 2006

Margaret V. L'Hommedieu beloved wife, mother and grandmother went to be with the Lord on December 24, 2006. Margaret was a great leader of people with her Presbyterian responsibilities. She served as bereavement coordinator, coordinator for Boards and Committees, organized the CPW Women's Group and was a charter member of Stone Oak Presbyterian Church. Margaret was a wonderful housewife, mother who served at Stone Oak Presbyterian with many volunteers; she was an ordained Elder, Sunday School Teacher and Superintendent who also worked with church camp as a counselor and director. She is survived by her husband, Robert L'Hommedieu; daughters, Kathy Juarez; son, Robert N. L'Hommedieu; sisters, Rose Haley, Helen Grossman, Loraine Anderson; and 3 grandchildren. If so desired, donations may be made to Stone Oak Presbyterian Church-Building Fund, 20024 Crescent Oak, San Antonio, Texas 78258-3220 or to the National Parkinson Foundation, Inc. 1501 NW 9th Ave. Bob Hope Road, Miami, Florida 33136-1494.

Tribute Wall

JZ

“ I will always remember my Aunt's ready smile and laugh. When I was 18 and just married, she let us stay with her instead of sleeping in a car until we found a place to rent. She found homes for my dogs when our rental didn't allow them to stay. When I

Jacque Zehner - January 12, 2007 at 12:00 AM

JG

“ Bob, We were saddened and shocked to read of the death of Marge. We always remember the bridge that we played with you both and the fun and enjoyment we had with you and Marge. Our prayers are with you and your family.
John and Susie

John and Susie Galik - January 01, 2007 at 12:00 AM

CC

“ Bob-We were sorry to learn of Marges\!!!!!!!!!!!!!!' passing. We know how active she was in your Church and hope that you will receive a lot of spiritual aid to help heal your self. We will always remember your help and leadership in our RV Group. We ow

Cactus Campers - December 29, 2006 at 12:00 AM

DC

“ Bob: We are certainly sorry for your loss of Marge. She was a really sweet person and left this world a better place for having travelled through it. If the weather permits Kay & I will attend the visitation tonight. We have started praying for you. Best

Dick & Kay Cary - December 29, 2006 at 12:00 AM

MS

“ I want to express my sorrow to you for your loss. I did enjoy the time that I spent with Marge.

Marvin Schweppe - December 29, 2006 at 12:00 AM

VW

“ I wish to sincerely express my sympathies and condolences to the L\\\'Hommedieu family. What I know of Marge, with the talents that the Lord gave to her, she used them to the fullest to glorify His name. Her rewards in Heaven will be great, for she was

Victor Wiedenfeld - December 29, 2006 at 12:00 AM

BI

“ I first met Margaret while Robert and she were dating. I worked with Robert in the supplies room of the Telephone Company. My Sister and I visited in their home often. Margaret was a very very sweet person. Never had a cross word about anyone. She

Billie - December 29, 2006 at 12:00 AM