

Margaret F. Pagel

November 5, 1920 - July 30, 2016

Margaret Frances Stephens Pagel was called home by her Lord and Savior on July 30, 2016. She will be deeply missed by her family and friends.

Margaret was born on December 5, 1920 in Belton, TX to the late Carroll and Edith Stephens. She grew up in and around the Bell County area and graduated from Belton High School. After high school she trained as a Licensed Vocational Nurse and spent several years employed at Scott & White Hospital in Temple, TX.

In 1954 she married Clyde Pagel and they made their home in San Antonio. Upon relocating to San Antonio, Margaret left her career in nursing to raise a family. She was very active at Baptist Temple Church and enjoyed traveling with the senior adult group.

Margaret was preceded in death by her husband, Clyde. She is survived by her son, Tom Suzi Pagel of Waco TX; daughter Edith Pagel of Burnet, TX; grandson Andy D'Leesa Pagel of Plainview, TX; grandson Collin Pagel of Waco, TX; sister Carroll Larry Coleman of Houston; sister Myra Dennis Parrott of Plano, TX; and by many loving family members.

Funeral services will be held at 1:00 p.m. on Saturday August 6, 2016 at Mission Park South Chapel, 1700 S.E. Military Dr. in San Antonio with interment to follow. The Rev. Gary Bradley will officiate.
