She is survived by her daughters Shirley Hodges and Peggy J. Oppelt, her grandchildren Mark

Hodges and wife Jennifer, Wayne Hodges and wife Courtney, Brian Hodges, James Oppelt and wife Lindsay, Sara Peters and husband Brian, Hannah Oppelt, Heather Stapper and husband Jake, Ross Condra and wife Ilyssa, Dillon Condra and partner Keri Mosel She was blessed with eleven great grandchildren Rebekah Hodges, Clayton Hodges, Allison Hodges, Scout Hodges, Rhett Hodges, Colton Stapper, Weston Stapper, Ilaina Condra, Rex Condra, Lena Oppelt and Milo Oppelt along with numerous nieces, nephews, great nieces and great nephews.

Margarett was a devoted Christian woman that spent her time ranching and with her family.

“Adaw” as she was known by her grand kids was a fervent prayer warrior for her family and church members and frequently would exclaim “hallelujah” when she saw one of her many prayers answered. She was a lifetime member of the Oak Island Methodist Church and taught many years of Sunday School classes. She especially loved sports and was a fan of all her grandkids’ sporting events. It did not matter whether it was football, soccer, baseball, softball or basketball, Adaw was ready to go. Her early years were spent as a loving Mother and homemaker, she later entered the work force working for the Frank Brothers and USAA. While working full time she also managed her family ranches where she raised polled Hereford cattle. She was an accomplished seamstress, creating many costumes and uniforms for her daughters’ varied activities.

She was a disciple of Christ, a loving mother, grandmother and great grandmother and a friend that will be dearly missed.

Visitation will be from 6 pm to 8 pm on Thursday, July 24, 2024 at Mission Park South Funeral Home. Celebration of Life services will be held at 10 am, Friday, July 25, 2024 at Oak Island Methodist Church.
