“ Growing up in the neighborhood with George and Michael, I was pleased to have met a wonderful woman, she would always ask me Juanito are you hungry mijo , then would make some sweet tea and fixed up dinner. Pachi would say why I was always the chiflado . I was just talking to my wife about Ms Mondragón a week prior . Thank you for welcoming with open arms, god has definitely gained an Angel. Rest In Peace Mamita .

“ My dearest Mother In Law. Words can not express my sorrow. Thank you for all that you taught me. I will carry on all your wonderful traditions in my family. Thank you for taking me in as a daughter. Thank you for the stories you shared, thank you for always making sure I was covered up in the cold, thank you for teaching me to cook, and the real Spanish words, and the support through my sacraments and school, oh my the thank you's can go on forever.. especially thank you for the laughs and hugs. You taught us all to be strong and we will teach our children how to be strong like you.. Sending All my love to the family and friends who may read this. We love and miss you Mammo.

“ She was such and amazing person, she always had the biggest smile when she would see us and always offer snacks, I remember all the times we spent together and went out to the store and all the time the family would go visit, I remember how she would always make sure we were happy and ok, I know we're all going to miss her but at least she's now with god watching over all of us

“ She was an amazing grandma. She did anything she can to help any of her grandkids. I remember me and her on the phone hours on end taking about anything and everything. We would also write letters to each other. She is such an amazing person and she would always make a friend anywhere she went. I miss her so much already and I thank god everyday for making her my grandma. I love you grandma ❤️
