

Margarita D. Rubio

February 15, 1949 - June 20, 2024

Margarita (Margie) D. Rubio was born in San Antonio, Texas on February 15, 1949, and went to be with the Lord on June 20, 2024, at the age of 75. She is preceded in death by her beloved husband Felix Rubio, daughter Rebecca Rubio Madrigal, parents John De Hoyos and Dolores Bermudez De Hoyos, and son in law Dewayne Stover. Survivors include her loving children Terri Rubio Stover and John Rubio, 10 grandchildren, 7 great grandchildren and other loving family members and friends.

Margie was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, sister, sister-in-law, and aunt. She enjoyed baking and cooking for her family. Margie was best known for her pies, banana nut bread, cakes and especially her bunny cakes at Easter. The smell of homemade tortillas was common in her house when her children were young along with freshly baked beans. The kitchen was the heart of her home, and she was happiest surrounded by her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren.

“ Mrs . Rubio , was not only my neighbor on 21 but my mother in law , dear friend , child care giver. The De hoyes were well known in the Air Force , community and were admired by the Westside community for bravery in WW2. She would light up a room with her smile and melt your heart with her wisdom. In living memory , my friend Margie De Hoyes - Rubio.
