“ Margarita spent most of her life in Chicago I'll. And lived a devout Catholic life. She was active at Good Shepherd parish and was active in pro life work. She offered her sufferings of Parkinson's disease for the salvation of souls. She was a member of the Legion of Mary and prayed the rosary daily. She was an inspiration to so many and I looked forward to my visits. With her. I found out she was in TEXAS when she called Good Shepherd parish informing them she was in Texas. I called the number given to me. My last conversation with Margarita was in late October. Many people did not know what happened to her. I prayed and I received a call from GOOD SHEPHERD SAYING THEY WERE INFORMED SHE WAS IN HER LAST AGONY. SHE IS PRECIOUS TO US AND WILL ALWAYS BE PRAYED FOR.
