

Margie L Kellner

December 13, 1925 - January 27, 2018

Margie Lea Kellner, born December 13, 1925, went to be with our Lord on January 27, 2018 at the age of 92. Margie was the eldest child born to Clint and Mayme Cox in Luling, Texas and lived most of her life in San Antonio. She was a member of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church and later a member of St. David's Episcopal Church.

She is preceded in death by her loving husband, Albert George Kellner, Jr; brother and sister-in-law Aubrey and Helen Cox; and brother, Gene Cox. She is survived by daughters and sons-in-law Laura and Tim Woodall and Colleen and Johnny Wells; grandchildren and their spouses, Sara and Clayton Zercher, Shanna and Jeremy Davenport, Amy and Quinn Dahlberg, Alan Woodall, Mikki and Lee Harris and Darren Wells; great-grandchildren Colt, Ellie and Katie Zercher, Zane and Corban Davenport, Blake and Paige Dahlberg and Jordan and Donovan Harris; sister-in-law, Maurine Cox; Inlaws, Eugene and Geraldine Kellner, Joyce and Jerry Mathis, Carolyn Kellner, Fred and Ann Kellner and numerous nieces and nephews. The family would like to thank Morningside Ministries and Alamo Hospice for their kindness, compassion and care.

Margie's greatest joy in life was her family. She felt blessed by God's gifts of a loving husband and two daughters. Her role as a mother came naturally providing abundant love, protection, kindness and compassion. She loved spending time with her children, grandchildren and her great-grandchildren. As her daughters began school, she was involved in school activities including the PTA and serving as the PTA president and organizing the first (and very successful) fund raising dinner at Herman Hirsch Elementary School. Margie was able to work many years at two of her favorite places, at Sam Houston High School as their attendance clerk (where her daughters were) and at Page's Fabric Store where she could envision dresses or clothes among the beautiful fabrics. Margie was a great seamstress for her and her children's clothes and later became the designer of many of their dance recital costumes. She sewed many ruffles and sequins throughout the years. Rockport was the destination of the annual Kellner vacation and still is for their children and grandchildren. Many memories were made at the beach and pool where Margie took countless pictures of her grandchildren who wanted her to catch them in mid-air as they jumped into the pool. She also treasured the beautiful sunsets across the bay. As Margie began to put her memories on canvas, she loved painting sunsets, scenes of the hill country wildflowers, bluebonnets and her favorite flower, the pink rose. She became a talented artist over the years and her children and grandchildren have many of her framed treasures in their homes.

Margie's faith was strong and she was a servant leader with her dedication to the altar and flower ministry and the vestry.

It is comforting to know that when Margie left this life, she was reunited with Albert and those who went before her. Margie was a loving wife, Mother, Nonnie to her grandchildren and great-grandchildren, sister and friend to many. She loved her family and her family will miss her tremendously.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that remembrances be directed to St. David's Episcopal Church and School for "Growing the Tradition" or your favorite charity.

“ I have so many lovely memories of living across the street from Margie and her sweet family. She was creative and kind with a beautiful smile. Margie loved her family and was so very proud of them. Her wonderful spirit and loving soul will always be with us.

God's blessings to Laura and Colleen.

Love,
Joyce Kosub
