

Margot Theresia Craig

July 9, 1940 - May 2, 2023

Margot Theresia Craig, of Lampasas TX, passed away suddenly on Tuesday May 2, 2023, at the age of 82. She is now reunited with her two beautiful daughters in heaven, Kathy Craig and Rosanna Craig along with all other loved ones that have preceded her in death. Her spirit is carried on by her sons Mickey Craig of Lampasas TX, and Harry Craig Jr. of Chandler AZ, along with many grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and great-great-grandchildren. She is their Omi!

Margot was born July 9, 1940, in Bad Neustadt an del Saale in Germany, a daughter to Johann Roemling and Alma Roemling. She spent her childhood in Germany and eventually came to the United States. In the US, she was proud to have worked hard and have raised her 4 children. Many years were spent in San Antonio, TX, and thereafter finally residing in Lampasas, TX, with her son Mickey.

We are blessed to have learned many valuable lessons from Margot during her 82 years on earth. She was a proud and strong woman who had a talkative nature, plus a great ability to find laughter and happiness in the toughest circumstances. She had a great love for her animals and enjoyed gardening. Margot was a woman of Catholic faith and believer in GOD. May she rest peacefully as we hold her memory in our hearts!

““Momma Craig” as we called her, always greeted our family with a smile and hug. She loved our little Illi, and was loved very much in return. Our family will miss her warm smile and loving hugs.

What an honor to have known this beautiful woman we called momma. She was such a warm loving lady. We will miss her greatly, always giving hugs and love every step she took. Now she can play Christmas ball anytime. RIP Momma. Love David and Belinda
